

General terms & conditions & regulations

1. Regulations

Participants regulations for the Zürich läuft events. The organizer of this activity is ZH Marathon GmbH, Uetlibergstrasse 111, 8045 Zürich, hereinafter referred to as the 'organizer'.

These regulations are an integral part of the contract between the organizer and the participants for the virtual runs and run series. The organizer decides on the interpretation of these regulations and is entitled to change them anytime. The general terms and conditions and the regulations apply to all participants of the virtual runs / run series who are doing the online registration. It applies to all selectable distances and disciplines (5km, 10km, 21.1km, 30km). The organizer conducts a virtual run or a run series. The concept provides no blocked routes, streets or other public areas which would be provided for the execution of the virtual run. Likewise, the organizer will not offer any marshals, first-aid posts, medical assistance or catering stations. No common start or finish area is agreed, each participant can independently cover the running distance and run.

2. Conditions of participation

Due to the current situation (national health department requirements), the following criteria must be observed and you hereby confirm that you have read and accepted the following points with your registration.

- a) A participation is associated with certain risks. You hereby confirm that you do not knowingly take any health risks by participating in this individual, virtual run. You are taking the full responsibility for the prior medical examination of your state of health; this is the responsibility of each participant.
- b) The time keeping / recording of the run (distance, activity time, time) can be recorded with your own device (Strava, Polar Flow, Garmin, other running tracking APP or wearable). After the run, you have to upload your activity to the timekeeping platform, a photo or print screen of the activity is sufficient (you can enter your time, distance and upload the confirmation photo using the registration confirmation link in the received registration email).
- c) The registration of your run must be completed on the defined and communicated day (CET time) by the specified time so that your virtual run is registered and included in the ranking (e.g. Sunday until 9:00 p.m.). Activities / runs after this time can no longer be taken into account.
- d) We count on your athletic fairness, no aids are allowed or cheating of tracking your activities. The uploads are checked by the organizer.
- e) You hereby confirm that you are running the run ALONE. The current distance and hygiene measures of the BAG (national health dep.) apply to joint runs, which can be viewed on the BAG website and strictly apply as a requirement.
- f) All information will be sent contactlessly via email or post (starter package, info and link to participate). Please enter your correct postal address.

- g) The participant is solely responsible for any injuries, damage or other health risks and occurring damages. The organizer cannot be prosecuted for this and is held harmless.
- h) For the distances 10km and 21.1km, an overall classification (overall ranking of the running series) is carried out for the series, with multiple participation of one person per distance, only the fastest time for the overall classification will be counted.

3. Registration and prepayment

- a) Registration and payment are made via internet registration. Registrations by phone or email will not be accepted.
- b) The organizer reserves the right to disqualify participants at any time and without reimbursement of the participation fee if they either provided incorrect information about personal data when registering or in any form violated the regulations.
- c) If a participant does not start due to illness with or without a medical certificate, any claim for reimbursement of the entry fee is void. Online registrations made incorrectly twice will not be reimbursed, but entitle you to a free start.
- d) If the run cannot be carried out or can only be carried out partly due to force majeure, extraordinary risks or official orders, there is no entitlement to reimbursement of the entry fee.

4. Data protection declaration

The following terms apply to the collection and use of your personal data after registering for our running events.

- a) Which data do we process?

For the correct registration and implementation of our running event, you must fill in the fields marked with * on the registration form. Due to the communication and the online registration, the specification of the email address is mandatory, as we need it for confirmation and any queries.

- b) Management of your personal data

We work with external specialized data registration companies for the implementation of the running event and for the electronic storage and management of your data. These companies process your personal data on our behalf.

- c) Consent to data processing

By registering, you consent to the publication of your surname, first name, year of birth, place of residence, start number, competition time and rank in the start and ranking lists of the event. This consent could apply to publication on the Internet, in print media, social media, on TV. The photos and film recordings taken in connection with our running event may be used on TV, the internet, our own advertising material, magazines and books without compensation claims.

I agree that the data mentioned in my registration may be used for the purpose of the event and sponsors. I assure the accuracy of the information I have given. Note according to the data protection law: Your data will be saved automatically!

Without a written notification to us (to the info email or postal address of the organizer) up to 5 days after registration, your personal data such as your surname and first name, home address (street, no. Zip code and city), date of birth, telephone number, and your email address – could be used upon request (e.g. photo and video service, sponsors) for services or advertising purposes but only in connection with the running event.

d) More information and contact

If you have any questions, please contact us at ZH Marathon GmbH, Uetlibergstrasse 111, 8045 Zürich, info(at)zuerichmarathon.ch.

5. Organization

- a) The event is organized by Human Sports Management AG.
- b) The organizer reserves the right to make changes.

Zurich, May 2020